

LUKAIJAH

Speaker, Coach, Spoken Word Artist

SPEAKER BIO

LUKAIJAH TARQUINO

is an inspirational speaker on a mission to make it common knowledge for leaders and youth to live from the wisdom of the heart. His journey has taken him from experiencing success and attainment on a path of externally-focused ambition, to discovering the lasting joy, fulfillment, and impact that comes when we are living in alignment with the heart. His message is crafted from his life's work of understanding how to shift from living in the head to living in the heart and what the challenges and rewards are along the journey.

Lukaijah's experience as an international facilitator of healing and transformation, as well as his abilities as a poet and freestyle rapper bring unique and powerful dynamism to his keynotes that are unlike anything else out there. He blends inspirational storytelling, wisdom teachings, spoken word and freestyle rap to not only inspire an audience but also leave a lasting imprint of empowerment.

Lukaijah's signature keynote, 'Leadership from an Awakened Heart' contains valuable and uplifting insights on evolutionary leadership presented in a unique and memorable way. At each main key point of his keynote, Lukaijah integrates the lesson with a powerful spoken word freestyle that lights up the room and creates deeper connection with the audience.

Lukaijah also offers customized keynotes and freestyle rap transmissions that are guaranteed to inspire and activate any audience.
